NEGROES DISSATISFIED.

Black and Tans May Bolt the Lily White Republicans.

Leading negro citizens here are talking of organizing a colored Republican party in Virginia and a call has already been issued for a meeting to be held in Richmond on October 3 with the view of nominating a full ticket for State local offices.

M. D. Wright, of this city, is mentioned as the probable candidate for governor and Goodman Brown, of Surrey county is said to be slated to offer for the lieutenant governorship.

Whether or not this move will amount to anything remains to be seen. The negroes are very much dissatisfied with the scant consideration they are receiving at the hands of many of the Republicans, especially where the "lily-whites" are in charge of affairs, and think they can better their own interests by bolting. It is claimed that the negro Republicans hold the balance of power in forty counties of the State.
